

God's Garden

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

Obituary

Ms. Imogene “Gene” Dice, affectionately known as “Emma”, was born on February 22, 1958 in Sumter County, Georgia to the parentage of the late Willie Dice, Sr. and Mattie B. Dice. She was educated in the public schools of Sumter County.

At an early age, she joined the Perry Grove Baptist Church. Gene was employed at the Americus Country Club for fourteen years. She later moved to Atlanta, Georgia. While living in Atlanta, she was employed at Kroger for five years and retired from the Clayton County Public School System after nineteen years of service in the nutrition department.

Gene was preceded in death by six brothers; Willie Dice, Jr., Freddie Dice, Robert Dice, Edward Dice, Sr., Bobby Dice and Torryce Dice. Emma peacefully transitioned to her eternal resting place on Sunday, October 24, 2021 at her home.

She leaves to cherish her memories her only son, Tavaris Dice, Sr. of Norcross, Georgia; two sisters: Melinda (Charlie) Johnson of Forest Park, Georgia and Deborah (Charles) Dice of Americus, Georgia; two aunts: Bobbie Player of Miami, Florida and Bertha Dice of Americus, Georgia; two grandsons: Tavaris Dice, Jr. of College Park, Georgia and Cameron Dice of Snellville, Georgia; a sister and brother from another mother: Deborah Fortune and Eric Finch, both of Americus, Georgia; one granddaughter, Camiyha Dice of Snellville, Georgia; four nieces: Niesha Johnson, Yasima Williams, Valerie Dice and Koris Dice; five nephews: Corey Johnson, Nichalas Johnson, Mario Dice, Baraka Dice and Edward Dice Jr.; host of cousins and friends, including a very devoted friend, Patrick Bolden.
