If Only I Knew

If only I knew that the last time we had spoken was going to be the last time, I would have spoken a little longer. If only I knew that the last time I saw you would be the picture I reflect back to, I would have starred a little longer. Cherished memories I will hold near: your laughter, your smile, your outgoing crazy personality. A sister, aunt, niece and caring friend you were to many who would say now if only I knew, yesterday would be the day that the memories we shared are all we would have, that today was the day heaven gained an angel. If only I knew that God would take you away so soon, there are so many things I would have done, IF ONLY I KNEW.

Your Loving Family
