"When peace like a river, attendeth my way;
When sorrows like sea billows roll,
Whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say
It is well, it is well, with my soul."

Our Gratitude

Words cannot adequately express our appreciation for the kindness and support extended to our family during the passing of our dear, Jacoby.

It is during times like these that we come to know how much our family and friends really mean to us. It warmed our hearts to receive all the kind acts of sympathy. We can't thank you enough for being there for us.

With Love & Thanks!

*Fly High
Jacoby
...Until We Meet Again*

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born and a time to die; A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; A time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; A time to mourn, and a time to dance.

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-4

Remembering Jacoby

Jacoby Jamale Pride, known to his loved ones as “Pride”, was born on October 6, 2000, in Americus, Georgia. He was the beloved son of Jessica Kearsse and Donald Bernard Pride. He cherished his role as a father to his daughter, Nadia Pride. Jacoby was a 2019 graduate of Americus - Sumter High School and was employed at Tyson Foods in Vienna, Georgia.

Pride always had a love for family and friends. He once said, “I would like to make a better living for my family, the people I love, and help individuals in need”. He had a passion for making money and was always seeking new opportunities to achieve financial success. Pride was always a giving and loving person. He was known for his goofy personality and athleticism. He was always able to bring a smile to the faces of those around him.

Jacoby Jamale Pride passed away on Wednesday, February 14, 2024, in Americus, Georgia. He will be deeply missed by his family and friends. May his memory be cherished, and his spirit live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

Jacoby is survived by his parents, Jessica Kearsse and Donald Bernard Pride; his daughter, Nadia Pride of Americus, Georgia; two sisters: Brianna Pride of Warner Robins, Georgia and Miyana Kearsse of Americus, Georgia; four brothers: Donald Pride, Jr., Eric Sparks, Quadrevion Phillips, and JaMarion Phillips; his grandparents: Deborah A. Pride of Americus, Georgia and Nancy Lee of Montezuma, Georgia; aunts: Kerri Pride of Warner Robins, Georgia and Barbara (Arthur) Holloway of Americus, Georgia; one uncle, Ward Willis, Jr. of Dacula, Georgia; Several other relatives and friends also survive.

“Distance may keep us apart, but love knows no boundaries. I miss you, my beloved son.”

His Eternal Place of Rest

Eastview Cemetery
Americus, Georgia

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

John 14:1-3
