A Mother's Love

A mother's love is something that no one can explain, It is made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain, It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may,
For nothing can destroy it or take that love away.
It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking.
It is far beyond defining,
it defies all explanation,
And it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation.
A many-splendored miracle man cannot understand And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.

Obituary

And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there will be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away.

Revelations 21:4

Mrs. Annie Rose Hall Bridges was born March 19, 1929 in Dumas, Georgia to the late of John and Ozella Hall. She worked for several years as a Custodian at Georgia Southwestern College. Ms. Hall was united in marriage to Emmett Bridges Jr. and to this union nine children were born, two preceded her in death: Moses Bridges and John Bridges. She was also preceded in death by two grandchildren: Carlos Burns and Bernard Bridges; four great grandchildren: Kelvin Walton, Jr., Brian Bridges, Terry Davis, III and Kaion Hamilton, II; a brother, George A. Hall; and a sister, Thelma Hall.

She leaves to cherish her memories her three daughters: Joann (Robert) Mack and Irene (Lawrence) Britt, Americus, Georgia and Barbara Bridges, Columbus, Georgia; four sons: James Edward (Carla) Bridges Edison, Georgia, Joe Bridges, Americus, Georgia, Raymond (Debra) Bridges, Americus, Georgia and Emory Wayne (Betty) Bridges Americus, Georgia; thirty grandchildren, seventy great grandchildren and fifteen great, great grandchildren. Several other relatives and friends also survive.
